HAND DELIVERED

Honorable Catherine C. Blake
United States District Court Judge
United States District Court for the District of Maryland
101 West Lombard Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21201

RE: Antwerpen Chevrolet, Ltd., et al.
v. Resolution Providers, Inc., et al.
Civil Action No. CCB-02-CV-1271

Dear Judge Blake:

I am writing on behalf of all parties in the above-captioned case. The individual defendants, Mark McDonald and Carol Stevens, were served later than the corporate defendant, and will not be filing a response to the Complaint until May 28, 2002. However, counsel for the corporate defendant also will be representing the two individual defendants.

~~X~~ Counsel for the parties have discussed your Scheduling Order, and would respectfully request certain modifications. Counsel believe that they will be able to consult with their clients and meet the deadline of May 29, 2002 with respect to a settlement conference, a report regarding deposition hours, and whether there is consent to proceed before a Magistrate Judge. With respect to the remainder of the Scheduling Order, after conferring with regard to counsel's respective trial, hearing and vacation schedules, it is requested that each of the dates in the Scheduling Order beginning with the date of July 1, 2002 be extended for 14 days. Thus, the Scheduling Order would be modified to provide the following deadlines:
